Issue #71

Do you remember when you first met the man or woman that you ended up marrying? (Guys, you better remember!) What was it that drew you two together? What was going on in your life that was pressing on you at that time but you were able to work around it to be with that special person?

This morning we introduce Boaz to Ruth. It was “love at first sight!” God has a plan for this couple and it was the providence of God that brought them together. Do you believe that God brought you into a relationship with the person who is now your spouse? Look back at the event and see where God was active in bring you two together.

Whoever wrote the book of Ruth clearly impresses us with God's role in the relationship between this Jewish man and a Moabite woman. In normal circumstances, Boaz would have nothing to do with her, but God overcomes custom and sometimes law to work His plan. We will discuss this in further detail in the message this morning.

This evening at 5:00 I will be discussing the story of Cain and Abel when they decide to offer a sacrifice to God. The biblical text tells us directly that God favored Abel's sacrifice over the sacrifice of Cain. What was wrong with Cain's offering? We will talk about the ingredients of what makes an appropriate sacrifice to God and why God rejects some of our offerings. Look forward to seeing you! Kevin

My Jesus Resolution today is to rest in the presence and power of my Provider. I am going to let Philippians 4:19 resonate throughout my day. The Lord stands in my day and promises to meet all my needs. The big ones, the little ones, the silly ones, and the serious ones. He will meet my needs not because I have it all together, can answer all the questions, or juggle all the balls, but according to His unlimited, inexhaustible and glorious riches. What do you need today? The Lord will Provide.

Read Philippians 4:19

Write it on your heart, let it speak to you
